

Getting back from the holidays

Start prepping by having your clothes and bags out ready to pack

In the morning have your children depending on age pack their bags in the morning

Try and get somethings done the night before

Do a reset to catch up on errands

Set the alarm on a realistic time that you know you can get a good nights sleep and be ready for normality to begin

